Montana DOR Issues Personal Income Tax Guidance on Pandemic-Related Telecommuting

A Special Message for Remote Workers in Montana, Mont. Dept. of Rev. (2/10/21). The Montana Department of Revenue posted a special “reminder” for anyone who lived in Montana for any time in 2020 and worked at their jobs remotely “including those who temporarily relocated due to the COVID-19 pandemic” – stating that they must pay Montana state income tax on any wages received for work performed while in Montana, even if their jobs are normally based in another state. Please contact us with any questions.
