The Florida Department of Revenue announced that it will hold a public hearing on March 29, 2022 to discuss various proposed amended and new rules reflecting legislation enacted in 2021 which, among other changes, revised Florida's sales tax nexus standard by requiring some marketplace providers and out-of-state retailers to register for, collect and remit applicable Florida sales taxes, including applicable local discretionary sales surtaxes, effective July 1, 2021 [see previously issued Multistate Tax Alert for more details on these remote seller and marketplace provider provisions, as well as other notable tax law changes in the legislation, such as replacing Florida's sales tax bracket system with a new rounding algorithm].
