California: New Law Requires Some Marketplaces to Collect Information from High-Volume Third-Party Sellers

S.B. 301, signed by gov. 9/30/22. Beginning July 1, 2023, new law mandates certain online marketplaces to require specified “high-volume third-party sellers” on the platform to provide certain tax and payment information to the platform, as well as certain contact information to consumers, in an effort “to make it more difficult for third-party sellers to sell stolen goods.” The legislation authorizes the California Attorney General to seek civil penalties from an online marketplace or a third-party seller in violation of the bill’s new requirements. About Deloitte

Deloitte refers to one or more of Deloitte Touche Tohmatsu Limited (“DTTL”), its global network of member firms, and their related entities (collectively, the “Deloitte organization”). DTTL (also referred to as “Deloitte Global”) and each of its member firms and related entities are legally separate and independent entities, which cannot obligate or bind each other in respect of third parties. DTTL and each DTTL member firm and related entity is liable only for its own acts and omissions, and not those of each other. DTTL does not provide services to clients.
