Arkansas: Proposed Rules Reflect Creation of Independent Tax Tribunal to Help Resolve Controversies

Proposed Reg. Section 243.01.22-001, Ark. Dept. of Inspector Gen. (10/14/22). Pursuant to legislation enacted in 2021 that mandates the creation of an independent tax tribunal known as the “Tax Appeals Commission” to resolve disputes between the Arkansas Department of Finance and Administration and taxpayers [see H.B. 1468 (2021) and State Tax Matters, Issue 2022-14, for more details on this legislation], the Arkansas Department of Inspector General proposed rules outlining the new tribunal’s procedures for operation, general organization, and pertinent definitions. The final date for public comment on the proposed rules is November 12, 2022. Please contact us with any questions.
