Arizona: New Law Continues Operation of Board of Tax Appeals through June 30, 2031

S.B. 1242, signed by gov. 4/18/23. New law revises state law to maintain the existence of Arizona's Board of Tax Appeals (BTA), a three-member board appointed by the Arizona Governor that was first established in 1974 and operates independently from the Arizona Department of Revenue, until July 1, 2031, rather than have the applicable state statute trigger automatic termination on July 1, 2023. The BTA generally hears and decides appeals filed by taxpayers and Arizona municipalities concerning Arizona income, transaction privilege, use, luxury and estate taxes and any other taxation assigned to it by state law.
